

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT – YEAR B (P 536)- 10/12/2017

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

O people of Sion behold, the Lord will come to save the nations, and the Lord will make the glory of his voice heard in the joy of your heart.

FIRST READING 40:1-5,9-11 Page 536

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Prepare the way for the Lord.

“Console my people, console them” says your God. “Speak to the heart of Jerusalem and call to her that her time of service is ended, that her sin is atoned for, and that she has received from the hand of the Lord double punishment for her crimes.”

A voice cries, “Prepare in the wilderness a way for the Lord. Make a straight highway for our God across the desert. Let every valley be filled in, every mountain and hill be laid low, let every cliff become a plain, and the ridges a valley; then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all mankind shall see it; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.”

Go up to the high mountain joyful messenger to Zion. Shout with a loud voice, joyful messenger to Jerusalem. Shout with hear, say to the towns of Judah, “Here is your God.” Here is the Lord coming with power, his arm subduing all things to him. The prize of his victory is with him, his trophies all go before him. He is like a shepherd feeding his flock, gathering lambs in his arms, holding them in his breast and leading to their rest the mother ewes.

Responsorial Psalm

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

SECOND READING

A reading from the 2nd letter of St Peter. 3:8-14 page 538

We wait for a new heaven and a new earth.

★ There is one thing, my friends that you must never forget: that with the Lord, “a day” can mean a thousand years, and a thousand years is like a day. The Lord is not being slow to carry out his promises, as anybody else might be called slow; but he is being patient with you all, wanting nobody to be lost and everybody to be brought to change his ways. The Day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then with a roar the sky will vanish, the elements will catch fire and fall apart, the earth and all that it contains will be burnt up.

Since everything is coming to an end like this; you should be living holy and saintly lives while you wait and long for the Day of God to come; when the sky will dissolve in flames and the elements melt in the heat. What we are waiting for is what he promised; the new heavens and new earth, the place where righteousness will be home. So then, my friends, while you are waiting, do your best to live lives without spot or stain so that he will find you at peace. ★

GOSPEL

The reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark.

Make straight the paths of the Lord.

★ The beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah:

Look, I am going to send my messenger before you; He will prepare your way.

A voice cries in the wilderness:

Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight,

And so it was that John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. All Judaea and all the people of Jerusalem made their way to him. And as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. John wore a garment of camel-skin, and he lived on locusts and wild honey.

In the course of his preaching he said, “Someone is following me, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to kneel down and undo the straps of his sandals. I have baptised you with water, but he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.” ★

Replenished by the food of spiritual nourishment, we humbly beseech you, O Lord, that, through our partaking in this mystery, you may teach us to judge wisely the things of earth and hold firm to the things of heaven.
