

Tenth Sunday in ordinary Time – Year B (P 664) – 10/6/2018

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Cf Ps 26: 1-2

The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; whom should I dread? When those who do evil draw near, they stumble and fall.

FIRST READING 3:9-15 Page 664

A reading from the book of Genesis.

I will make you enemies of each other, your offspring and her offspring.

The Lord called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. "Where are you?" he asked. "I heard the sound of you in the garden; "he replied "I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid." "Who told you that you were naked?" he asked. "Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?" the man replied, "It was a woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it." Then the Lord God asked the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman replied, "The serpent tempted me and I ate."

Then the Lord said to the serpent, "Because you have done this. Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts. You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life. I will make you enemies of each other: you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring. It will crush your head and you will strike its heel."

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

4:13-5,1 page 666

We believe and therefore we speak.

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture – I believed, and therefore I spoke – we too believe and therefore we speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life and will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people; the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to myself, says the Lord. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Page 666 3:20-35

The reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark.

It is the end of Satan.

★ Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, "Beelzebul is in him," and "It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out." So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either – it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

"I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness; he is guilty of an eternal sin." This was because they were saying, "An unclean spirit is in him." His mother and brothers now arrived and standing outside sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, "Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you." He replied, "Who are my brother and my brothers?" And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother."

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, my God is my saving strength.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

May your healing work, O Lord, free us, we pray, from doing evil and lead us to what is right.

Through Christ our Lord.
